

Table of Contents

Editor's Note.....	4
Juliette Duszyński
Seine Gateway® at the heart of North-Western European freight flows: regional dynamics and current challenges.....	5
Jacek Szoltysek
The city as a pretext for developing logistic concepts.....	25
Teresa Gądek-Hawlena, Marek Wróbel
The effects of innovative solutions implemented in the supply chain of the public postal operator in Poland.....	35
Agnieszka Piasecka-Głuszak
The implementation of practical solutions in logistic processes in companies familiar with lean management by means of benchmarking methods.....	45
Mariusz Kostrzewski, Andrzej Chudzikiewicz
Rail vehicle and rail track monitoring system – a key part in transport sustainable development.....	59
Elżbieta Pohulak-Żołędowska
“The common-pool resources” in the open innovation process.....	75
Ewa Placzek
Sustainable development in business models of logistics providers.....	87
Sabina Kauf
Sustainable development as a basis for the formation of supply chains.....	99
Grzegorz Lichocik, Adam Sadowski
Sustainable logistics: social and environmental aspects. A case study of Dachser.....	109
Jarosław Kłosowski, Jerzy Dudek
The project of the international logistics centre in the free economics zone Sughd – Tajikistan.....	121
Andrzej Bujak
The development of the concept of supply chain management as an example of the evolution of logistics.....	133